AND TO EACH A SEASON

SURRY

COMMUNITY

COLLEGE

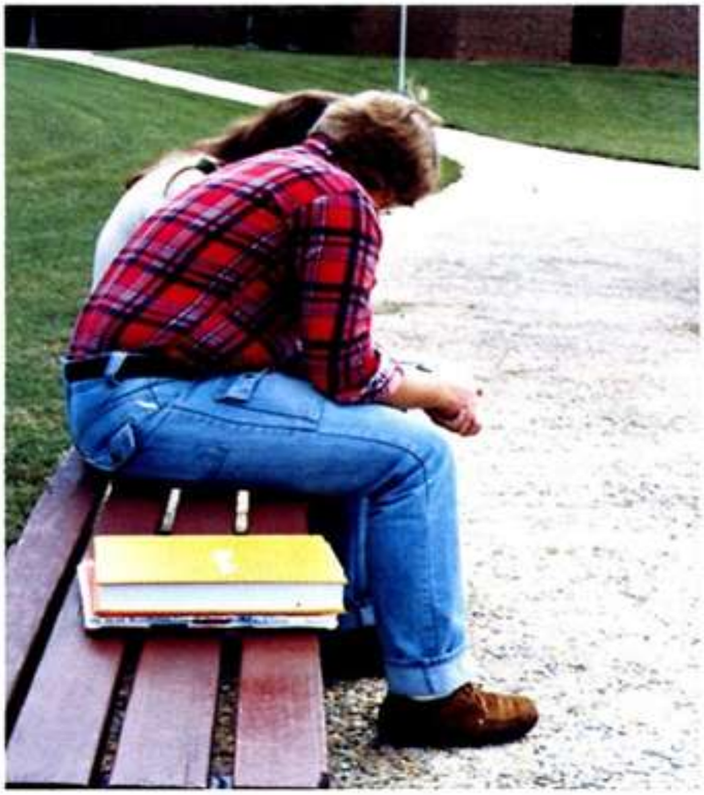

And to each season
there is something special
the warm glow of the sun,
a daisy, the rustling sounds of laughter, a rainbow
and the beauty of love.

And to each a season . . .

being a part
and also an individual
knowing rain and storms may come
and still endlessly awaiting our rainbow feeling pride at sunset for our accomplishment
and anxiously anticipating the promise of dawn making each day our best
and striving to make tomorrow better.

A season to be ourselves

Wilson

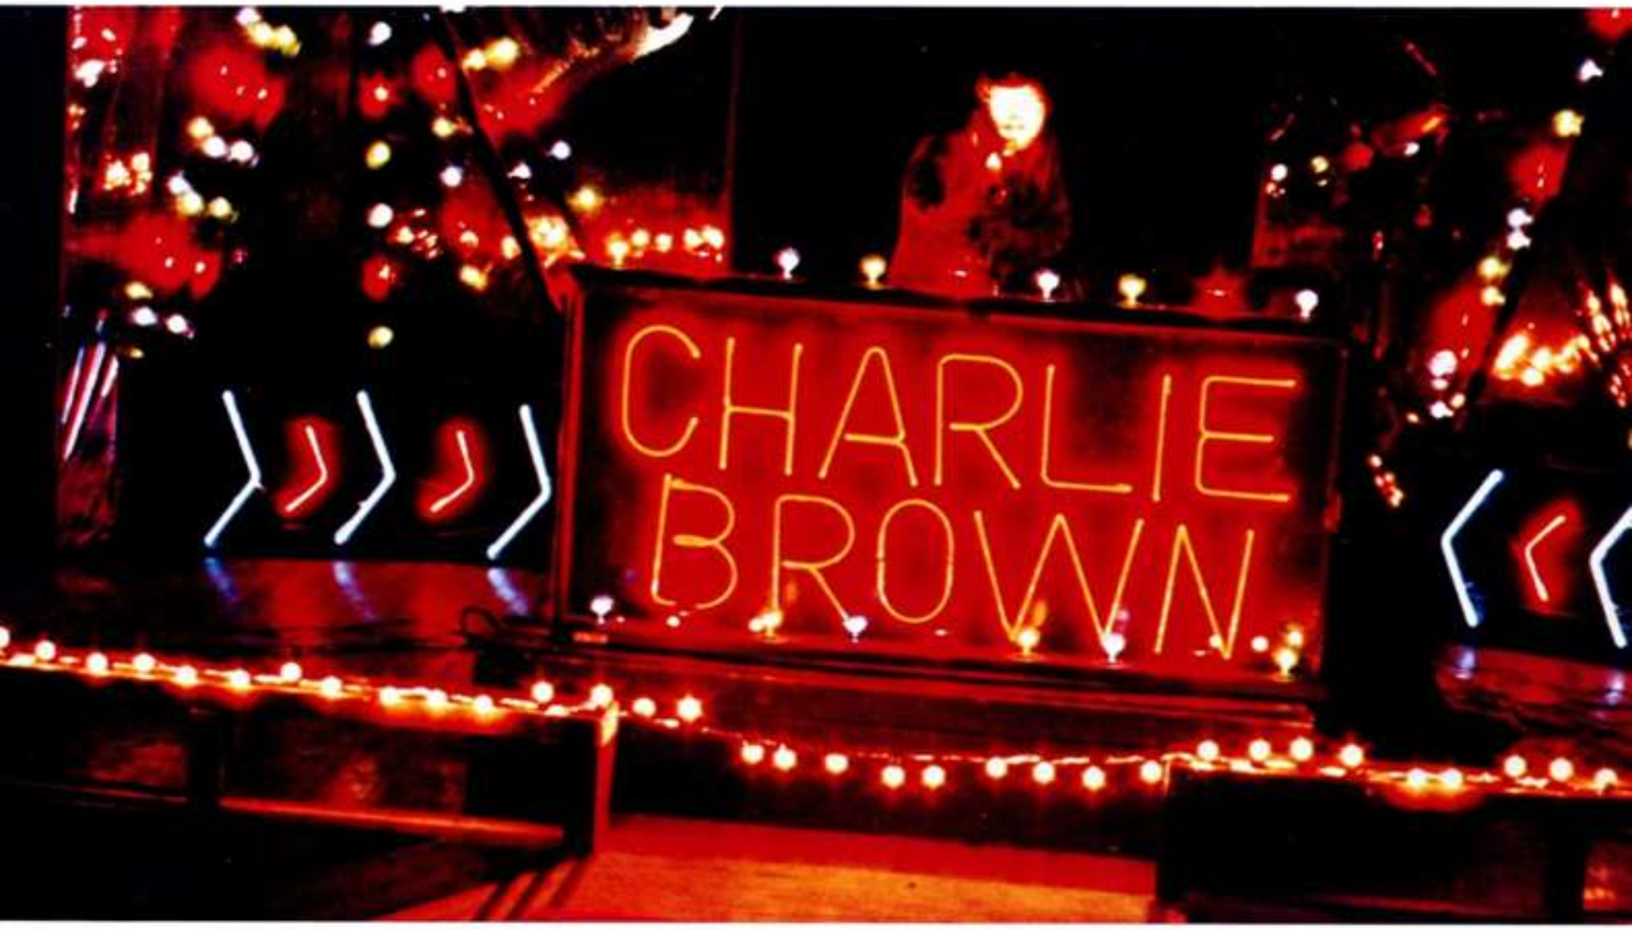

ROOK

BROWN

A season to serve.

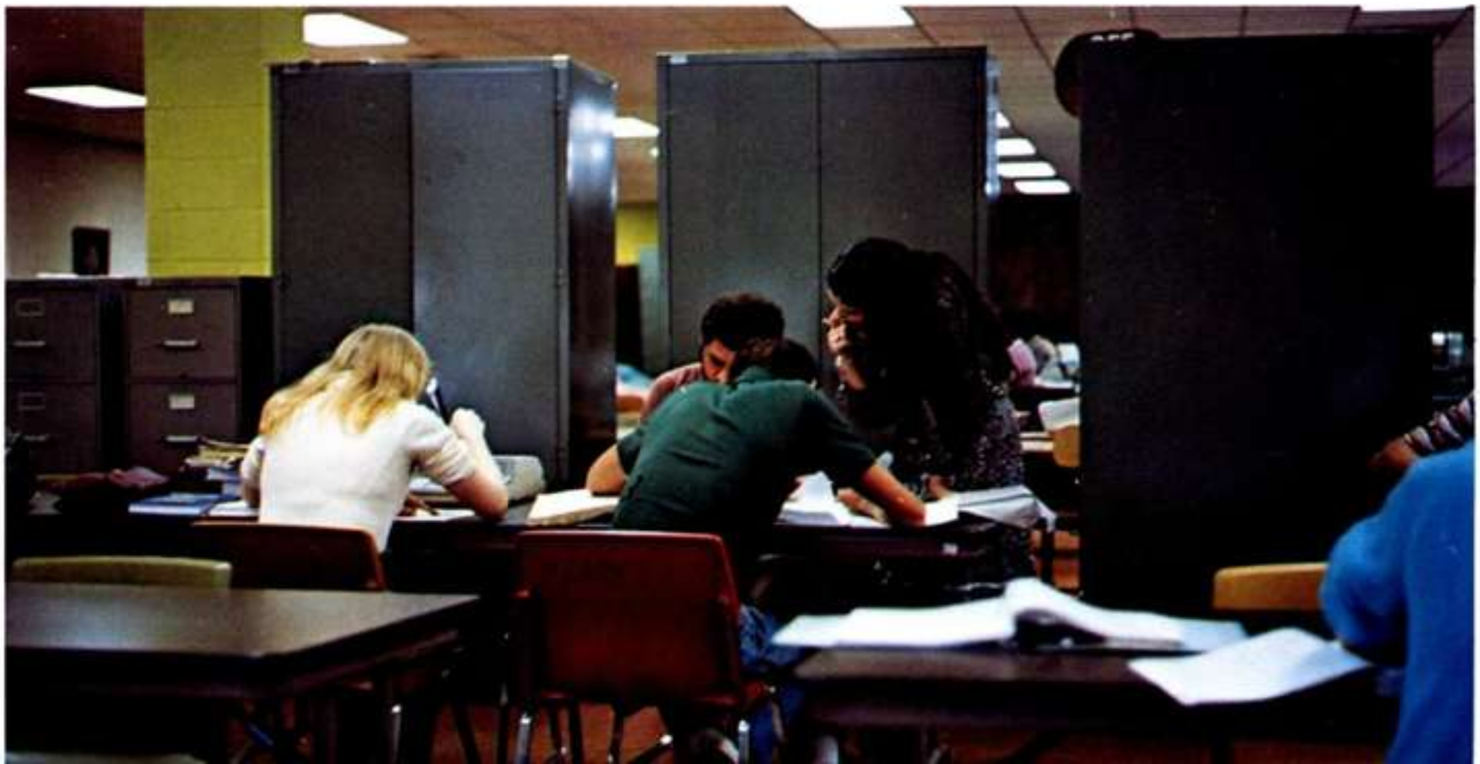

And to each a season . . .
each person choosing the one that will be special to him. The curriculum at Surry Community is as varied as the seasons. From auto mechanics and welding to nursing and college preparatory; every person is given the chance to choose what will help him reach his life's goals.

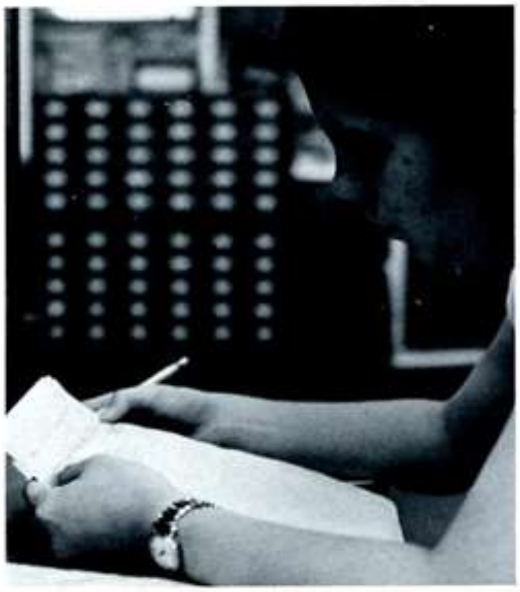

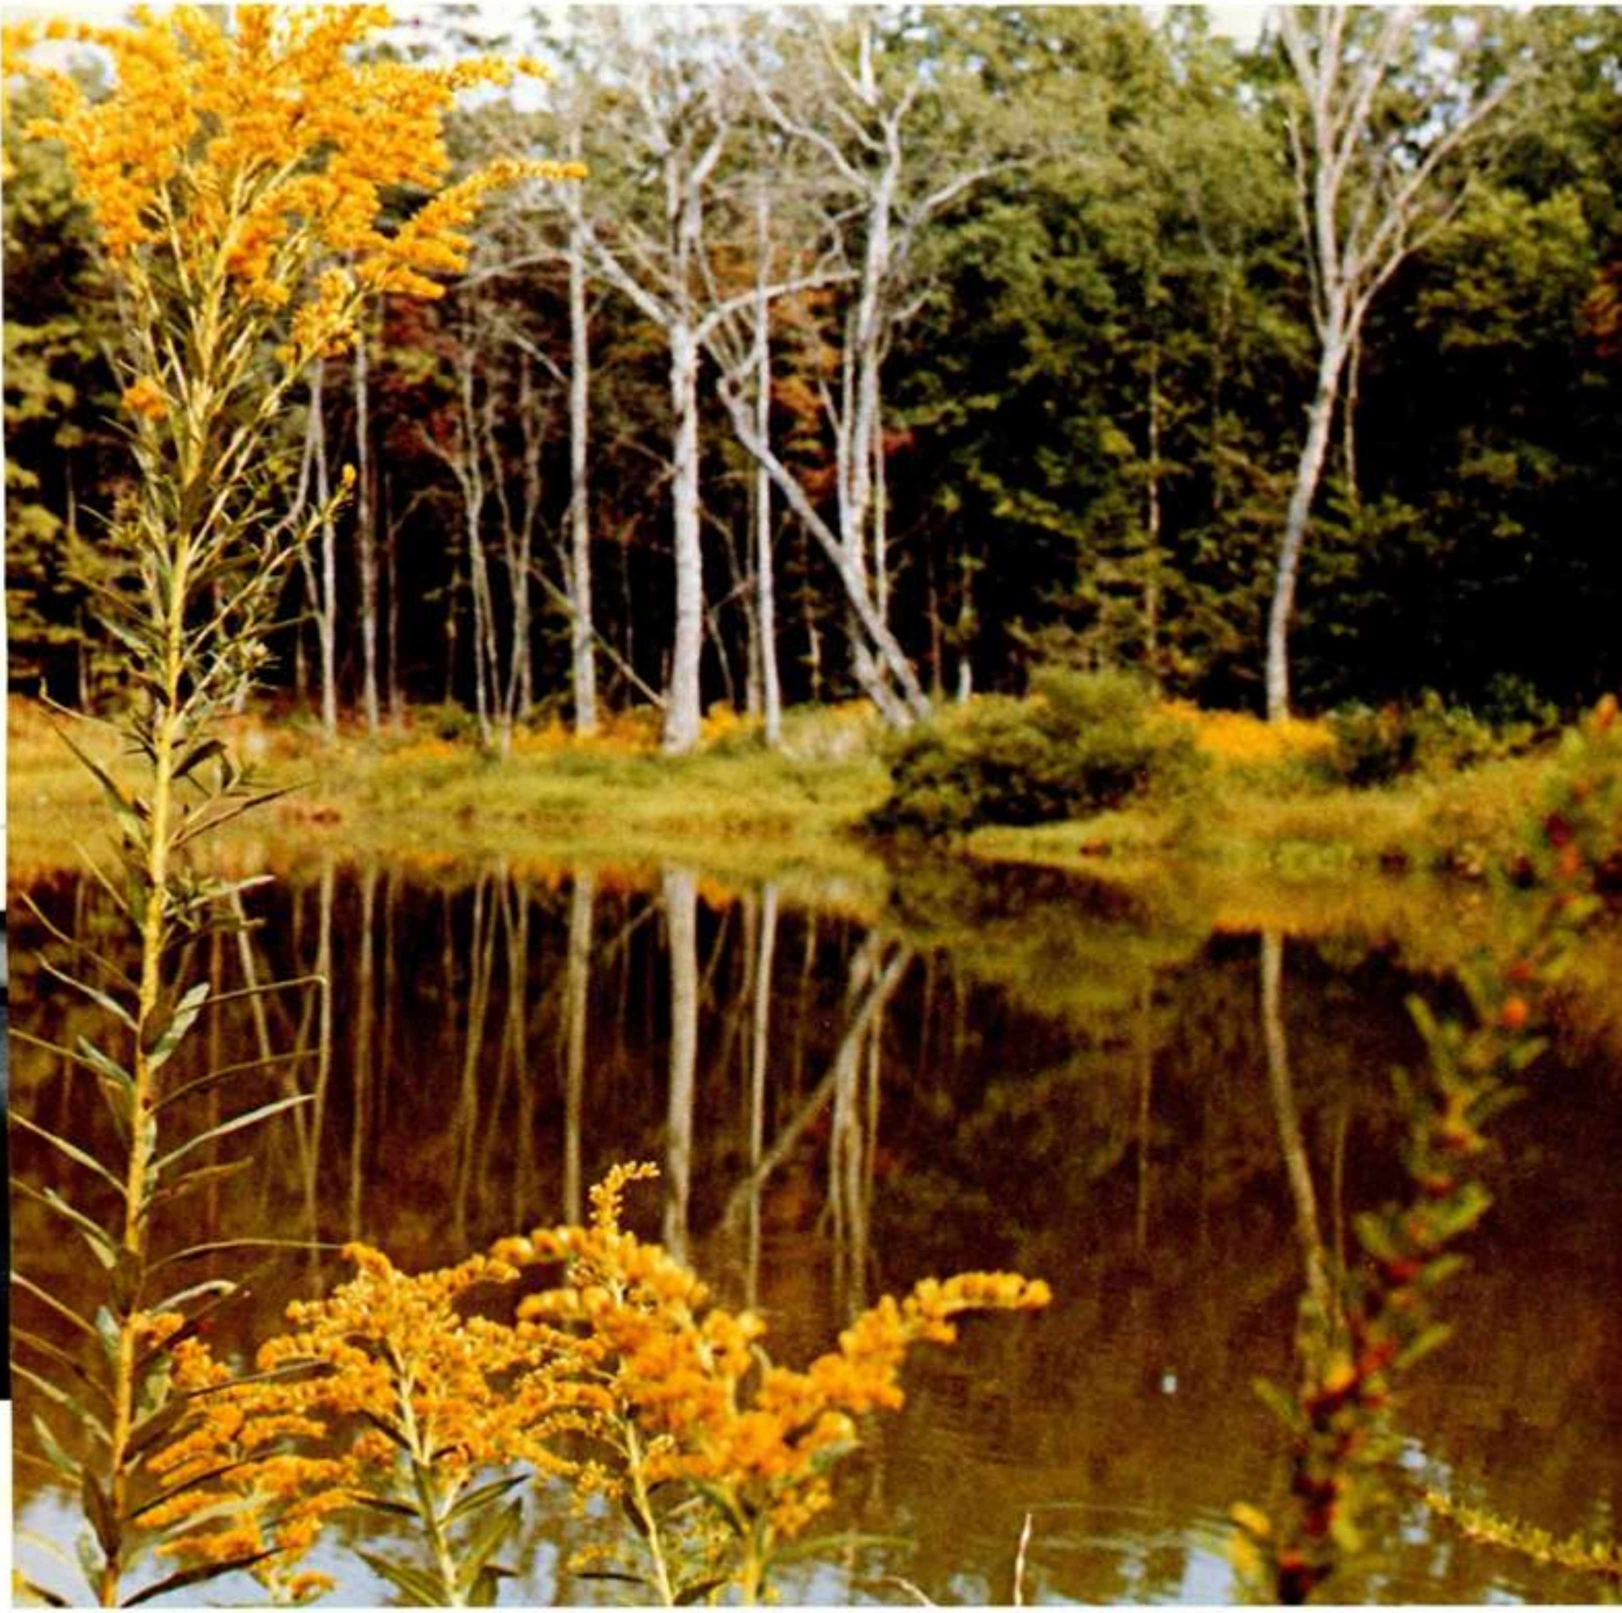

And to each a season . . .

and also an individual
knowing rain and storms may come
and still endlessly awaiting our rainbow
feeling pride at sunset for our accomplishment
and anxiously anticipating the promise of dawn
making each day our best
and striving to make tomorrow better.

As the seasons pass . . .
to everything there comes a change,
just as the peaceful winter snow melts to bring forth the budding flowers of spring, individuals are always growing, molding and making themselves into a better tomorrow.
